NEWPORT, BY CHARSTON & NORMAN 144 THAMES STREET

THURSDAY MORN'G, MAY 17, 1855

I John Manchesten, of Tiverton, and an Irishman, named Dogan, were working in a field together in Portsmouth, about 10 days ago, and had some difficulty, when Manchester struck Dugan across the forchead with an ox-goad, inflicting considerable of a wound. A few days ago Dugar was arrested in this city and put in Jail, on account of his singular conduct; it was soon ascertained that his mind was affected, and he was released and taken to a boarding house on Bannister's Wharf, and medical attendance procured for him. He lies in a very critical condition, and one of his physicians informed us yesterday that but little hope was untertained of his recovcry. We understand that Manchester says that Dugan was crazy and came at him and that he struck him in self-defence; none but the parties were present, we believe, when the alterestion took place.

THE steamer Metropolis got aground at the South end of the harbor yesterday morning, in coming in from New York, and remained fast about three hours. No damage was sustained.

ar Dr. Nivison delivered her first lecture to ladies exclusively last evening, at Masonic Hell. We learn from several ladies who were present that the audience, although not crowded, were very attentive und manifested a great deal of interest in the subject; Dr. Nivison gave entire satisfaction to all present,-and the probabilities are that the remaining lectures will be numerously attended. It will be for the interest of all Ladies to attend.

Kissing-is a luxury, at least we know of several of our friends who think, and the of several of our friends who think, and the Editress of the Ladies' Repository is of that opinion. She thinks kisses vary, like faces of Philosophers, some being hot as coal fire, some sweet as honey, some mild as milk, some tasteless as long drawn soda. She loves stolen kisses ? Well, they are pretty good feed" more of the nutmag and cream kind than others. Our fair columporary says she has been kissed a few times, and as she is not very old, she hopes times, and as she is not very old, she hopes to enjoy the same treatment frequently. If she will consign herself to The City Irea onlice, we have three or four young, hand-some and talented assistants who will grat-ity her wish, "without money and without price."—[Philadalphia Gity Item.

Should the lady accept this proposition of consignment, we do not believe that our gallant friend, Col. Fitzgerald, of the Item, would entrust the delicate duty spoken of to any of his assistants. It would be performed by himself.

PERHAM's Ethiopian Operatic Company give their first entertainment at Bellevue Hall this evening; there are a large number of performers, and they are said to sing admirably. Their efforts are highly spuken of by the press of New York, Bos ton and other places where they have given Concerts.

3F For several years past the fine music of the Band in the procession, on Election day, has been completely smothered by the blasts from tin horns, which are sold in great quantities to lonfers and boys on such occasions; we trust that the City Council will pass an ordinance prohibiting this nuisance. If they will do this, the Sheriff will see that the law is enforced and the nuisance abuted.

(F Since Uncle Sylvester joined the Know Nothings he has literally become "n men of few words;" being naturally a great talker and quite carnest and enthusiastic in conversation, he is afraid almost to open his mouth now, for fear he should say something that he ought not to,-even the admission that he is a member of the Order He need not be afraid in regard to this last point, since our Clothes Line Telegraph has revealed the secret.

A negro purchased a hat, and was observed to take it off his head during a shower, and to manifest considerable anxiety to preserve it. On being remonstrated with for his supposed stupidity, he said, "Do hat belong to me-de head to massa."

UF Mr. Longworth says his grapes are uninjured by the late frosts in the vicinity of Cincinnati; and that he shall make full as much, if not more, wine than he has any previous year.

Five members of the Massachusetts Legislature have died during the session.-Speaking of the last of these, the Boston Journal says:

Mr. Lincoln was the chairman of the first committee which investigated the conduct of Mr. Hiss at Lowell. He was a gentleman of a nice sense of honor and unusual sensitiveness, and it is currently believed that his death may be directly traced to the excitement and anxiety | connected with the Hiss affair. He was evidently much aglaated during the exciting discussion upon his report, and he went home after that debate to find rest only in the grave.

STATE FINANCES.-We are indebted to the General Treasurer for the following abstruct of the receipts and expenditures of the State for the year ending on the 30th day of April last. It will be seen that the expenses have exceeded the terenue nearly $16,000, with an unexpended appropriation of $25,000 for the alterations directed to be made upon the State Prison at the last session of the General Assembly. The expenses of the courts have been increased during the year about $10,000. The cost of this branch of the government has become extravagantly large, and some measare of retrenchment ought to be devised.

The party which will take possession of the government of the State on the last Tuesday of this month, will have to replenish an exhausted treasury. Some of the members propose an increase of the bank tax, and others are in favor of an increase of the State tax, upon a new valuation, from three to five cents upon each one hundred dollars. The latter plan would probably give additional revenue to the amount of thirty thousand dollars. Even this would be insufficient to meet the demands upon the treasury, without a reduction of expensea. There was recieved last year more than $30,000 for tax on increase of, and addition to, the bank capital of the State .-The amount from this source, during the coming year, cannot be large. This deficiency, therefore, will have to be considered in any new plan of finance which may be proposed.

This question of finance may prove an exceedingly troublesome one for the 'American party.' It has embarrassed many of its predecessors in the General Assembly, not inferior, to say the least, in sagacity, wisdom, and all needful statesmanlike qualities. The present three cent tax was violently opposed, and was finally carried only by an imposition of a still larger amount upon the banks. If this subject is considered and manured at the ensuing session of the Legislature,-and we do not see how it can be postponed until January .- un unusually protracted sitting may be reasonably anticipated.

Novel Aerial Voyage .- The New Orleans papers have an account of the most successful serial voyage performed by a balloon, with five persons in it, including some members of the press. The balloon started on the evening of the 30th ultimo, and went three hundred and ten miles in six hours, landed its passengers at Fort Gibson and then took a fresh start on another voyage. This would almost seem to realize the hones of aerial navigation, except that a balloon with its great bulk and no power of motion except in one direction, from its levity can have no more force to navigate the air than a cork can navigate upon the water. It meroly floats in the direction the atmosphetic current carries it.

BY TELEGRAPH.

New York, May 15 .- The back Graper shot has returned to this port with the fugitive Baker, the murderer of Bill Poole, on board. The Grapeshot arrived off Palmas in seventeen days from this port, and laid on and off titl the Isabella Jewett hove in sight, when they boarded her and captured

The Grapeshot arrived eleven days fore the Isabella Jewett, and boarded her as she was going into the harbor of Pal mas. Baker was ignorant that he was pursued. He was on heard the Jowett 2 days before she sailed. 'He shed tears when he met Turner.

THE EMPRESS EUGENIN .- In the Paris correspondence of the Precurseur d'Auvers, under date of the 25th ult., we find the following :-"The Empress is enchanted at the idea of her visit to the East, and she is proud to find that the Emperor has ended by gaining overy one over to his side. The journey to England fatigued her greatly but she always endeavored to conceal its offects, from an apprehension that the Emperor would not consent to take her with him to the East .-Whenever the sense of fatigue overpower ed her, she hastened to say that that which tired her most was the continual efforts in public to which she was condemned. Yesterday evening, as she was speaking with enthusiasm of her approaching departure for the East, she added that there was only one thing that troubled her in connection with this journey, and that was the idea of her stopping at Constantinople. 'What would you do at Sevastopol ? inquired the Emperor; 'would you accompany me about on horse-back?' 'No,' replied the Empress that wherever there is suffering to assuage have not women a sublime duty to fulfiil? Whilst you would be at the head of your soldiers, I would be the leader of those meritorious women who visit the battle-field to attend upon and console the wounded.' "

AMERICAN SURGEONS FOR RUSSIA.-The Ohio State Journal announces' that Dr. William McMillen, and Dr. William R. Thrall have left Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of entering the service of the Emperor of Russia as surgeons. They proceed first to Washington, to hold an interview with the Russian Minister, and then sail from New York. They are both young men, and, it is expected that as soon as they are properly commissioned by the Emperor, they will be desputched to the seat of war.

CLERICAL .- The following circumstance transpired not a hundred miles from New Haven. It partakes slightly of the "shady side." A minister having received a call to settle was waited on by the committee when the following dialogue was had :-"Have you a family?" "Yes, a wife and four children, besides an aged mother." "How small a salary would you be willing to work for? "I desire a competency for my support; but as for that matter, I am willing to refer it to your ability and generosity."-"What do you say to $250?" "Well, it is not as large as I had expected; but I might manage to live comfortably with it. You furnish a parsonage of course?" "Oh, the parsonage is included in the salary. We call the parsonage $200." "Surely, you do not expect me to live on $50 a year?' Well not exactly-but we won't be hard on you. You can make something outside. If you like, you can preach half a day every Sunday-or you can preach the whole day for half a year, at your convenience -The rest of the time you can have for your. selt! We won't be hard on you!"

红子 W. P. Eaton, a highly respectable physician of Norwich, has been fined $20 and costs, for selling a man a medical prescription of rum, and laudanum to wash a broken limb. A similar outrage was committed by the squad of Maine Law informers in this city not many months ago. In that case a respectable druggist had his shop ransacked by the officers and his small stock of liquor seized, because it was accidently brought to light that he had some tive or six months previously put up a prescription in which brandy formed a part for a woman whose child was dying with the cholora,---Hartford Times.

DEARNESS OF PROVISIONS .- BEEF EATERS. The Boston Courier says:

A large retail dealer in one of the markets: who has an extensive trade with bearding houses, taverus and resturants, informed us on Saturday, that" people out more been now than ever they did before notwithstanding the high prices, and he found great difficulty in selling other articles, which, from their comparative cheapness, were likely to take the place of beet at the famine rates at only which the latter can be purchased.

A justice of the peace in the neighboriond of this city has adopted a movel mode of putting the test to all persons who are brought before him under charge of having taken too much atimulus. He has procured a long, narrow plank, which is elevated from the ground by means of a brick at each end. This the accused is made to walk-or rather to attempt to walk. If he succeeds, he is at once discharged, and the constable \mathfrak{g} addled with the costs ; but if $h:\ell_0\mathbb{N}_{\mathbb{R}}\to\mathbb{R}_0$ is pronounced .-- Ohia Statesman.

CUBEBS AND COPAIBA

Smootioned by popular opinion and the high nutherity of the most distinguished of the medical faculty, it ofters to the afflicted a remedy whose success has in every instance supported its deserved reputation. Being convenient and agreeable in its use, experience has proved that is retained in every climate to desirable and truly valuable character. It is in this form of a patter, at instellers, and does not impair the dispersion. It is prepared with the greatest position care, upon well treated principles. To persons following the sea, or going long voyages, this preparation possesses qualities far surpassing my other—near and portable in its form, specify and efficaction in its operation, successful both in the earliest and warst stages of the severest distances, whist the usual and nauseous raste and unpleasant odor to copaiba is wholly avoided in this preparation.

Prepared and sold whole ale and retail, by JOHN A TARKANT, successor to James Tarrant, 218 Greenwick struct, corner of Warver, New York; and for sale by the principal proggests in the United States, British Pravinces, West Indice, and South America.

THORN'S Compound Extract of Copaiba

THORN'S Compound Extract of Copalba and Sarraparilla possesses a few advantages not enjoyed by any other medicine for the cure of sexual diseases; and which must, with an enlightened public, render it assuredly highly programmed public, render it assuredly highly popular, and a desideratum long coupts for in the medical world. It meeds as confinement or change of diet. In its approved form, that of a paste, it is entirely instained and causes so unpleasant sensation to the patient.

SCAP 1 SOAP 11

THE subscriber is now prepared to furnish the highly celebrated American Cream, American Laundry, American Manufacturers' Scap, and Cream Soap preparation. These soaps are presented to the public with the fullest confidence in their superiority and utility. A fair trial according to the directions given below, cannot fail to be entirely satisfactory; and an argument more conclusive than pages of criticates and recommendations. A fair trial is all 1 insk. These soaps do the work of the certificates and recommendations. A fair traini-all link. These soups do the work of the Laundry in the best manner in cold water, either hard or solt, or salt, dispensing entirely with boiling, pounding, washing machines, &c., without injury to the most delicate fabric. In cold weather, health may reader it advisable to take the chill off the water. The lendency of these scaps is to soften the clothes and toosen the hold of the dirt, without injury.

Also, Fixures for a new and valuable improvement in applying hauthators by which the glass is kept dry, causia in leaks in roofs of buildings, and efficiently preventing the Electrical Fluid from being conducted by iron screws and drives into the seen.

The following renommendations have been unlished gratuitously—Louisville, Jan. 27, 1851.

The Lightning Conductors in the plan of J. Spratt, of Cincinnati, appear to be very well devised, and in point of mechanical construction, are the best I have ever scene. It is to be hoped that the use of these rods may become general as an important auxiliary defence against a danger which must be regarded us of no ordinary magnitude, to which all buildings are liable.
